

21st Century Fake News

Some inspiration for what your red lines might be

- I won't do anything to cover up or support illegal immigration
- I won't help politicians justify breaking their own promises
- I won't help the President act against the interests of the Party
- If the President commits a crime, I won't cover it up
- I'm opposed to sending our troops into real conflict with a major power
- I believe that climate change is a real threat.
- Our political system must be free of foreign interference
- I won't break the law to do my job
- I believe in the campaign the President ran on, we must hold to that.
- We should welcome those refugees in genuine danger to The Country.
- I won't use foreign assets to manipulate the news
- I won't help the President act against the interests of the People
- Famous Astrologist Syd Omarr warned me that I must beware of the People turning against me personally
- Poverty is a real issue – I can't cover up our own people being hungry and cold.
- Other Major Power is our enemy, we should never forget that.